Parineeti Chopra Pens Heartfelt Note For Raghav Chadha On Advocating Paternity Leave: 'Proud of You Always'

Parineeti Chopra and Raghav Chadha are one of the most loved couples in town. The duo often dishes out major goals with their cute antics on social media. Parineeti, who is currently embracing her journey as a new mom, never shies away from praising or cheering for Raghav online. On March 31, a "proud" wife penned an appreciation note for Raghav. He raised an important issue in Parliament, speaking about paternity leave, arguing that caregiving should be a shared responsibility, and demanded that it be made a legal right in India. A while ago, the actress shared the video and wrote a long note for him.

Raghav and Parineeti welcomed their son, Neer, in October 2025. Since then, they have been sharing responsibilities to raise their munchkin. Taking to her Instagram handle, Parineeti heaped praise on him and expressed pride. Her note read, "My dearest husband, Watching you speak today not just as a Member of Parliament but as a new father to our baby, is a moment I will carry with me for a long time. Today you spoke as the dad, I see every single day." She continued, "We have discussed this so many times! How our baby deserves both parents to be present – to the best of their ability. So when you spoke about paternity leave, it wasn't just policy. It was built from the way you parent our child, the way you show up without being asked, the way you understand that PARENTING IS SHARED, not assigned. "Bacche ke paida hone par, keval ek maa ka janm nahi, ek pita ka bhi janm hota hai." There are so many mothers who carry this responsibility alone, often unheard, unseen. Homes where the fathers' and family support are missing. Today, you brought their loneliness into the Parliament – a room where it truly matters."
